FUTURE IN "WILL"

Affirmative form

Subject + will + infinitive verb

Ex. I will play tennis tomorrow.

When to use it

"Will" is used to express future events or actions.

It is often used when we:

- Make predictions.
- Offer to do something.
- Make promises.
- Decide something at the moment of speaking.

negative form

Ex. You will not/won't play tennis tomorrow.

Subject + will + not + infinitive verb or

Subject + won't + infinitive verb

Interrogative form

Will you play tennis ?

Will + Subject + infinitive verb